Surrounded by the familiar comforts of coastal charm and heirloom-quality construction, the San Rafael collection is crafted from solid mango wood. The beautiful furniture of this collection features frame-and-panel construction, over-sized styling, carved pedestals and a beautiful, antique oak finish. This beautiful 60-inch round dining table with antique oak finish pairs perfectly with any reclaimed wood or mixed media dining room decor. The heirloom quality construction enhances the durability and beauty of the table, while the presence of natural wood knots and distressed markings bring out the distinct characteristics of this wood, making no two pieces the same. Perfect for both casual and formal dining, this table can fit 8 seats comfortably making it an excellent addition to any kitchen or dining room. The antique oak finish of the wood adds to the longevity of the piece, providing maximum moisture and scratch resistance for many years to come.
