Make any space more comfortable with this contemporary chair from the Madison collection. With the eco-friendly black leather wrapped around the solid hardwood frame, this chair is both modern and vintage all in one piece! The faux leather seat back features a square, stitched design along the front, giving the chair a unique texture that is sure to stand out. The light, natural looking style of the Napoleon finish on the solid wood legs complements a variety of solid wood and mixed media finishes. This pre-assembled Madison chair is ready-to-use and of the finest quality, and with it's vintage feel, it will make an effortless addition to any home.
