Our Portofino collection of retro-inspired chairs add vintage charm to your dining or kitchen space. The distressed antique ebony leather seat of the armchair has a soft, luxurious feel, and the high density foam cushion and heavy gauge sinuous spring, all combine to provide ultimate comfort. The four iron legs in rustic, antique zinc finish feature caps to protect all types of flooring, while the reclaimed oak panel base provides a vintage flair. Perfect for placing in a formal living space or adorning your favorite reading nook, this beautiful and unique armchair will harmonize with any style of decor from industrial to contemporary. This pre-assembled armchair is ready-to-use and of the finest quality, and with it's classic design and elegance, it will make an effortless addition to any home.
