Our Portofino collection of retro-inspired chairs add vintage charm to your dining or kitchen space. The distressed antique ebony leather seat of the sofa has a soft, luxurious feel, and the high density foam cushion and heavy gauge sinuous spring, all combine to provide ultimate comfort. The five iron legs in rustic, antique zinc finish feature caps to protect all types of flooring, while the reclaimed oak panel base provides a vintage flair. Perfect for placing in both a formal or informal living space, this beautiful and unique sofa will harmonize with any style of decor from industrial to contemporary. This pre-assembled sofa is ready-to-use and of the finest quality, and with it's classic design and elegance, it will make an effortless addition to any home.
