Made of wrought iron in a gesso white finish on the exterior and a silver leaf finish on the interior of its shades, the Peace Lily Chandelier is one of our designs that proves how a brute material can be made to appear delicate. The white chandelier with its floral motif is a versatile design about which its creator Tom Caldwell said, "I chose a gesso finish with silver leaf accents to fit it into the genre of 1920s Paris styling I had in mind." We also offer the Peace Lily as a wall sconce.
