The Broken Egg Vase is one of a number of products in the Broken Egg Collection of decorative accessories, furniture, and wall art, which was realized when Phillips Collection collaborated with the talented designer Dann Foley. Made of composite with a luminous gold leaf interior and pearl white exterior, this decorative vase will shine from its spot in any room. As a brilliant decorative accessory, it is remarkably versatile: place the elegant vase atop a stack of coffee table books on a foyer table or on a library shelf. The note of whimsy that the fluted edge brings to this gold decorative vase adds personality to the clean contemporary style of this piece without interrupting its modern lines.
