With its curved lines and modernistic feel, the Larkin line of lighting is reminiscent of one of the first buildings designed by Frank Lloyd Wright. Like the work of the famous architect, the Larkin line of lighting features an elegant sense of balance, featuring white frosted glass or drum shades contrasted with dark or metallic frames and the curved lines of the shades with the straight geometry of the frames. Larkin lighting comes in a full range of configurations suitable for any room in the house and blends easily with contemporary or mid-century design schemes. 4 Light Large Pendant, White Linen Drum Shade
