Harness the visual appeal of linear elements with the Marina Performance Velvet Sofa. Interior vertical channel tufting creates a directed flow that adds depth to your retro modern living room, lounge room, or home office. Each subtle retro modern accent swirls together for an organically designed piece that provides both decor appeal and premium comfort. Soft, stain-resistant performance velvet upholstery covers an individually-wrapped pocket coil support system encased in dense foam padding for a luxurious seating experience. The Marina upholstered velvet sofa rests securely on four splayed and tapered gold stainless steel legs with non-marking foot caps and can support up to 900 lbs.
